

ACRL/Women's Studies Section 2010 Conference Program

Finding the Best Film for the Classroom: Feminist Pedagogy, Visual Literacy and Representation

Multimedia resources allow students who are increasingly visually oriented to experience other eras and cultures and to acquire ethnographic sensibility and visual literacy that could not be delivered through textual material. A panel of four experts will discuss issues concerning multimedia resources on women's issues sharing their perspectives on collection development, marketing, distribution and classroom use.

Panelists

Karen Alexander

Senior Editor of Signs: Journal of Women in Culture and Society and founding member of Films for the Feminist Classroom

Chimene Tucker

Librarian for the Film and Media Studies, LGBT Studies, and World History, University of California Santa Barbara

Debra Zimmerman

Executive Director, Women Make Movies

Dan Moshenberg

Director of the Women's Studies Program and Professor of English, George Washington University

The program will be moderated by Kayo Denda, Head, Margery Somers Foster Center and Women's Studies Librarian, Rutgers University

2010 ALA Annual Conference
Washington D.C.

Monday, June 28
8-11:30AM
Washington
Convention Center –
Room 147A

(The program will be preceded by an award ceremony at 8AM)

The program is made possible with the co-sponsorship of Feminist Task Force and Committee on the Status of Women in Librarianship